Email address _____

Yale Daily News position this year (specify board position or beat if applicable)

_____

Previous positions held at the News (include year)

_____

_____

Did you work at a campus or outside job during the previous academic year? YES  NO

If yes, how many hours did you work per week? _____

Without this stipend, how many hours per week would you expect to work this year? ____

What level of financial assistance (up to $3,000 per year) would free you from having to hold a job during the academic year? _____

Even if you receive a stipend, do you plan to work an outside job? (If yes, please explain in your personal statement.) YES  NO

On a separate page, please include a personal statement of no more than 800 words addressing your experiences at the Yale Daily News, your future goals at the News and how this stipend would affect your ability to participate in the News. Please explain how you have met your self-help obligation in the past and what other financial resources you can draw on to meet the obligation. (You do not have to fill all 800 words; it is a maximum, not suggested, length.)

Please also submit documentation from Yale's office of financial aid of your financial aid package for the 2016-'17 academic year, including the amount of your self-help contribution.

Paper clip the following items and enclose them in a large, sealed envelope: (1) this form; (2) your personal statement; (3) financial aid documentation. Do not staple or fold the pages. Applications must be submitted to Emad Haerizadeh at the Yale Daily News building by midnight on Wednesday, October 5, 2016. Late applications will not be considered.

Applications will be reviewed by a selection committee of alumni from the Yale Daily News Foundation. You will be notified about whether or not you will receive a stipend on or before October 18.
